Unique In Getting Results

Fiduciary Standard Of Care

As independent Registered Investment Advisor, we offer the best practices to define your objectives and implement a plan to reach your financial goals. Because we are not tied to any specific products or services, you won't encounter "flavor-of-the-day" investment or financial product advice.

Your Needs Guide Our Process

Your specific goals and individual needs direct us to the best opportunities for planned growth. Because we utilize a time-tested and value-oriented investment approach with a competitive, fee-based pricing structure, you receive better value from our services—both today and in the future.

Taber Asset Management offers free educational seminars and workshops to clients and the general public.

We Make A Life By What We Give

At Taber Asset Management, you profit from a level of service that has traditionally been available to relatively few. Although we make a living by accepting fees for our advice, our firm philosophy reminds us that we truly make a life by what we give to others, and we are committed to your financial success.

Advisory Services and Fees

Our firm provides investment advisory and consulting services to individuals, pension and profit-sharing plans, trusts and corporations. Investment advice and portfolio management services are provided on a continuing basis and include the appropriate allocation of managed assets among cash, stocks, mutual funds and bonds. Through the selection of appropriate individual investments, we provide proper diversification and clients meet their stated investment objectives. We do not provide investment advice only with respect to limited types of investments.

Our firm currently utilizes the following format for providing services to clients: We meet with you to discuss specific needs and goals through a dialogue concerning invested assets, sources of pension benefits, expected Social Security income, inheritance expected, income from full time or part time work, and the value of home equity to determine where you are on the path to achieving your financial or life goals. We will ask you to complete an investment objectives questionnaire which serves to clarify risk tolerances. It also results in a written guide or plan for Taber Asset Management to make investment decisions on your behalf. We continually maintain contact with you.

Financial Planning

We provide financial planning services including asset protection, wealth planning, pension consulting, retirement planning, estate planning, and other employee benefit consulting for you. These services include gathering financial data, outlining goals, identifying problems, assessing risk tolerance and defining investment objectives based on the individual needs of the client.

The client pays Taber Asset Management, LLC for its investment management services based upon the client's assets under management as set forth in above fee schedule. Advisory fees are negotiable. Such fees shall be assessed quarterly. Accounts opened in mid-quarter will be assessed at a pro-rated management fee. Fees are payable quarterly, in advance and such fees are deducted from client's account(s) quarterly within thirty (30) days of the beginning of the calendar quarter.

Fees are calculated on an incremental basis and are subject to change with 30 days written notice. Certain clients of Taber Asset Management, LLC with pre-existing relationships may initially be charged fees which are less than those set out above.

We maintain a Limited Power of Attorney or Trading Authorization for all discretionary accounts for the purposes of directing and/or otherwise effecting investments on behalf of the managed account. The Limited Power of Attorney or Trading Authorization extends on most discretionary and non-discretionary accounts for the direct payment of our fees and/or the payment of any commissions, custodial fees and or other charges incurred by the account(s).

Most of our clients pay for our investment advisory services through a direct debit to their accounts quarterly. We send a debit notice to clients in the mail to notify them of the amount to be debited. This notice is not a billing invoice and does not require a response.

Financial Planning

Our Financial Planning services are billed at an hourly rate of up to $225.00 per hour. A separate Financial Planning Agreement is executed with each client using this service. The amount due will be disclosed in the Financial Planning Agreement. You may terminate this agreement without penalty with five business days of signing the agreement. Our clients will be entitled to a refund of any prepaid planning fees less a charge for any time spent on preparing the plan up to the point of termination. After the five-business day period, our hourly clients will owe for any time spent on preparing the plan up to the point of termination based on the hourly rate agreed upon in the financial planning agreement. All fees are negotiable and confirmed in writing by agreement.

Termination

The relationship between the parties may be terminated by either party upon 30 days written notice. The client will be entitled to a pro rata refund of any pre-paid fees based on the number of days remaining in the quarter after termination. The advisory fee due to the Advisor for the termination period shall be prorated and shall be based on the latest valuation of the assets as of the effective date of termination. Client may request this in writing to the advisor.

Additional Fees and Expenses

To the extent mutual funds are selected by Taber Asset Management, LLC to fill components of the overall investment strategy, the annual advisory fee does not include the customary fees and expenses associated with investing in mutual funds or other costs of establishing and maintaining an account with mutual funds including Rule 12b-1 fees and expenses. Client is advised that, in addition to the annual advisory fee, some mutual funds in which assets are invested may incur separate other related expenses.

Advisory fees payable to us do not include all the fees you will pay when we purchase or sell securities for your Account(s). The following list of fees or expenses are what you pay directly to third parties, whether a security is being purchased, sold or held in your Account(s) under our management. Fees charged are by the broker dealer / custodian.

We do not receive, directly or indirectly any of these fees charged to you. They are paid to your broker, custodian or the mutual fund or other investment you hold. The fees include:

- Brokerage commissions;
- Transaction fees;
- Exchange fees;
- SEC fees;
- Advisory fees and administrative fees charged by Mutual Funds (MF), Exchange Traded Funds (ETFs)
- Advisory fees charged by sub-advisers (if any are used for your account);
- Custodial Fees;
- Deferred sales charges (on MF or annuities);
- Odd-Lot differentials;
- Deferred sales charges (charged by MFs);
- Transfer taxes;
- Wire transfer and electronic fund processing fees;

- Commissions or mark-ups / mark-downs on security transactions;
- Among others that may be incurred.

Item 6 - Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management

We do not charge any performance-based fees (fees based on a share of capital gains on or capital appreciation of the assets of a client). Our advisory fee compensation is charged as disclosed above.

Item 7 - Types of Clients

We provide our services to the following types of Clients:

- Individuals, including high net worth individuals
- Trusts, and estates
- Pension and Profit-Sharing Plans
- Corporations or other business entities

Minimum Account Size

For managed accounts, a minimum initial account size of $500,000 is generally required. We may negotiate a lower minimum account size. If the new account is related to an existing account, we may accept a new account with a minimum of $100,000.

Item 8 - Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

Our Investment Strategy

We will ask you to complete an investment objectives questionnaire which serves to clarify risk tolerances. It also results in a written guide or plan for Taber Asset Management, LLC to make investment decisions on your behalf. In addition, we complete an Investment Policy Statement in which your investment strategies are outlined. We adhere to the Investment Policy Statement and continually maintain contact with the client.

Security Analysis

Our security analysis method is fundamental analysis which involves analyzing businesses: financial statements and health, management and competitive advantages, and competitors and markets.

Sources of Information

In conducting security analysis, we utilize a broad spectrum of information, including financial publications, third-party research materials, annual reports, prospectuses, regulatory filings, company press releases, and corporate rating services.

Investment Strategies

We employ a range of investment strategies to implement the advice we give to clients including: long-term purchases, short-term purchases, margin transactions, and option strategies including writing covered options.

Risk

Although we work hard to preserve your capital and achieve real growth of client wealth, investing in securities involves risk of loss that each client should be prepared to bear. Certain strategies can impose more risk than others. Depending upon the client need and investment mandate, we will endeavor to thoroughly explain the rules applicable and address them in the investment management agreement as well.

Cash Management

Each client custodian “sweeps” non-invested cash balances in client accounts every day into a money market account selected by the client and offered as a service by the custodian. At client request, we will recommend the sweep vehicle among the choices offered by the custodian. In that case, we make a recommendation based on our understanding of the client’s tax status and risk preferences.

Money market sweeps generally fall into four categories: government money market funds, prime rated money market funds, tax-exempt money market funds, and bank deposit sweep accounts.

Our core expertise is active fixed income management (including corporate, government, and municipal bonds), risk-managed equity management (primarily common stocks) and customized balanced portfolios. Services include the management of a wide range of fixed income, balanced and equity portfolios. In addition to the types of securities described above, we may invest in preferred stocks, government agency obligations, money market instruments and such other securities that we may select, unless expressly limited by written direction or client guidelines.

Item 9 - Disciplinary Information

Taber Asset Management, LLC and its employees do not have reportable disciplinary history.

Item 10 - Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

The Firm does not have any external Financial Industry Activities or Affiliations to report. Please see Form ADV Part 2B supplements for advisory representatives outside business activity.

Item 11 - Code of Ethics, Participation in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

We have imposed restrictions upon ourselves or any person associated with us in connection with the purchase or sale, directly or indirectly, for their own account or accounts controlled by them, of securities recommended to or purchased for clients. We maintain strict guidelines and a Code of Ethics for all our employees designed to assure that we, or persons associated with us, may not benefit, directly or indirectly, from transactions made for the accounts of clients and that no other conflict of interest exists.

We, our officers, employees or directors, are required to pre-clear securities trades in order to avoid a conflict of interest between individual and client interests. Our Code of Ethics contains various exemptions for personal securities trades that we believe do not involve potential conflicts, such as Treasury Securities, open-end mutual funds and stock of companies that we will not purchase for clients. A copy of our "Code of Ethics" is available upon request.

Participation or Interest in Client Transactions

Subject to satisfying this policy and applicable laws, officers, directors and employees of our firm can trade for their own accounts in securities which are recommended to and/or purchased for our clients. The Code of Ethics is designed to assure that the personal securities transactions, activities and interests of our employees will not interfere with (i) making decisions in the best interest of advisory clients and (ii) implementing such decisions while, at the same time, allowing employees to invest for their own accounts. Under the Code certain classes of securities have been designated as exempt transactions, based upon a determination that these would materially not interfere with the best interest of our clients.

Personal Trading

The Code of Ethics permits employees to invest in the same securities as clients, resulting in a possibility that employees might benefit from market activity by a client in a security held by an employee. Employee trading is continually monitored under the Code of Ethics to reasonably prevent conflicts of interest between the firm and its clients.

Trades will be aggregated, if possible, and diligence will be maintained to insure that any trades made in an employee account does not have a better price than the clients' accounts.

Our employees and persons are required to follow our Code of Ethics.

Prohibition on Use of Insider Information

We have also adopted policies and procedures to prevent the misuse of "insider" information (material, non-public information). A copy of such policies and procedures is available to any person upon request.

You may request a complete copy of our Code, free of charge, by contacting us at the address, telephone or email on the cover page of this Part 2.

Item 12 - Brokerage Practices

We manage client accounts on a discretionary basis (authority to act without first obtaining specific consent). It limits the discretionary authority by prohibiting us or our employees from withdrawing funds and/or securities from client accounts.

We have both discretionary and non-discretionary accounts. Research Services / Soft Dollars

We do not participate in research services or soft dollar arrangements.

Broker Analysis

In an effort to achieve best execution, we consider the following factors in selecting brokers:

- Execution capability
- Order size and market depth
- Availability of competing markets
- Trading characteristics of the security
- Availability of accurate information comparing markets
- Quantity and quality of research received from the broker dealer
- Financial responsibility of the broker-dealer
- Confidentiality
- Responsiveness
- Ability and willingness to commit capital
- Availability of accurate information comparing markets
- The technology to process such data
- Other factors that may bear on the overall evaluation of best price and execution

We monitor and evaluate the performance and execution capabilities of brokers that transact orders for our client accounts to ensure consistent quality executions. In addition, we periodically review our transaction costs in light of current market circumstances, available published statistical analysis as well as other relevant information.

Principal vs. Agency Transactions

Taber Asset Management, LLC does not trade any principal transactions.

Item 13 – Review of Accounts

William E. Taber, President and CCO reviews the managed accounts. Specific reviews are made at least quarterly. Financial planning accounts are reviewed annually. The calendar is the triggering factor. Unscheduled reviews can occur more often if additional trigger factors occur such as major market fluctuations, political or economic shifts and/or a change in the client's goals or objectives occurs. Accounts at other money managers are reviewed when Taber Asset Management, LLC receives their statement- usually quarterly.

We do not have a limitation on the number of client accounts assigned to any particular account officer, nor is there a precise sequence or review schedule. All portfolios are reviewed by William E. Taber.

We prepare portfolio evaluations for the managed accounts. Client can choose to receive the portfolio evaluations monthly, quarterly or semi-annually. You will receive quarterly statements from your broker/dealers, mutual funds and other money managers, as appropriate. Those contracting only for preparation for a financial plan will not receive regular reports on their accounts as their agreement expires upon completion of the analysis and payment of the invoice.

Item 14 - Client Referrals and Other Compensation

We do not participate in client referrals. We do not receive additional forms of compensation for providing advisory services.

Item 15 - Custody

We do not have actual custody of client assets. Taber offers the service of having the advisory fee(s) deducted directly from the client's custodial account as a matter of convenience, so the client does not have to write a check to the adviser each quarter. This is custody, but some relief from the additional books and records and net capital requirements is available, if the adviser complies with the following: (1) client authorizes the deduction in writing, (2) statements are forwarded from the custodian to the client reflecting the fee deduction at least quarterly or as often as fees are deducted, (3) the Advisor sends an invoice at or before the time the fees are deducted from the clients account. The custodian maintains actual custody of Client assets. Therefore, each client must select a custodian and can be required to pay custodian fees. Also, clients will incur brokerage and other transaction costs in the course of our management of their accounts. Clients will receive account statement from one or more qualified custodians covering the funds and securities in their account(s). We urge Clients to carefully review such statements and compare such official custodial records to the account statements that we may provide to you. Our statements may vary from custodial statements based on accounting procedures, reporting dates, or valuation methodologies of certain securities.

Standing Letters of Authority: Taber has been deemed to have inadvertent custody as a result of you providing us with Standing Letters of Authorization ("SLOA(s)") to withdraw funds from your portfolio account to pay third parties. Notwithstanding that, a surprise examination is not required as we are relying on the conditions set forth in the No-Action letter issued by the Securities and Exchange Commission on February 21, 2017. Pursuant to the conditions set forth in the No-Action Letter, Taber confirms that (1) you provide an instruction to the qualified custodian, in writing, that includes your signature, the third party's name, and either the third party's address or the third party's account number at a custodian to which the transfer should be directed; (2) you authorize us, in writing, either on the qualified custodian's form or separately, to direct transfers to the third party either on a specified schedule or from time to time; (3) the Custodian performs appropriate verification of the instruction, such as a signature review or other method to verify the your authorization, and the Custodian provides a transfer of funds notice to you promptly after each transfer; (4) you have the ability to terminate or change the instruction to the Custodian; (5) we have no authority or ability to designate or change the identity of the third party, the address, or any other information about the third party contained in the your instruction; (6) we maintain records showing that the third party is not a related party of Taber or located at the same address as Taber; and (7) the Custodian sends you, in writing, an initial notice confirming the instruction and an annual notice reconfirming the instruction.

Item 16 - Investment Discretion

We have discretionary authority to make determinations regarding the securities that are to be bought and sold, as well as the quantities of such securities, for most clients. Such authority is provided in our contract with each client. This discretion is subject to mutually agreed upon investment guidelines relative to the client's portfolio. We have model portfolio guidelines available for clients to adopt, in whole or in part, if they do not have their own. Client investment guidelines may or may not limit the scope of potential investments. As a result, clients can impose restrictions on investing in certain securities or types of securities. Within client guidelines and instructions, we make decisions as to the nature and quantity of securities to be bought or sold.

Item 17 - Voting Client Securities

As a matter of firm policy and practice, Taber Asset Management, LLC does not have any authority to and does not vote proxies on behalf of advisory clients. Clients retain the responsibility for receiving and voting proxies for any and all securities maintained in client portfolios. Taber Asset Management, LLC may provide advice to clients regarding the clients' voting of proxies.

Item 18 - Financial Information

Registered investment advisers are required in this Item to provide you with certain financial information or disclosures about Taber Asset Management, LLC's financial condition. Taber Asset Management, LLC has no financial commitment that impairs its ability to meet contractual and fiduciary commitments to clients and has not been the subject of a bankruptcy proceeding.

We do not require or solicit prepayment of more than $500 in fees per client, six months or more in advance and therefore do not have any material financial disclosures.
